AIR FLOW

From the top of Vinpearl Landmark 81, Autograph Collection - the tallest building in Vietnam, a symbol of modern urban development, you can watch planes arriving from all over the world, sleek machines that represent the pinnacle of human ingenuity. Capture the beauty of these aircraft as they soar through the sky against the stunning backdrop of Ho Chi Minh City, a bustling metropolis that embodies the spirit of modernity. The view “Air Flow” will tell a story of global connections, urban life, and the endless possibilities of the future, all framed by the awe-inspiring architecture of this iconic building.

MAPS OF FLIGHTS TO THE CITY

To prepare for this project, Quang Lam had created maps showing all flights from all over the world arriving at Tan Son Nhat Airport based on real data.

With a closer view of the city map, we can see that Vinpearl Landmark 81, Autograph Collection offers the best vantage point for observing flights, as the building is only about 10 kilometers away from the airport.

TIME-LAPSE PHOTOGRAPHY

To visualize the path of the planes on the horizon, Quang Lam used a technical shooting technique called “time-lapse”, which requires taking a sequence of frames at set intervals to record changes that took place slowly over time. After that, all frames were overlapped into one picture creating the sensation of the plane’s motion.

TOWER OF BABEL

As a seasoned photographer with a deep-rooted connection to aviation, Quang Lam's childhood was shaped by his father's role in the first Vietnamese airline, fostering a lifelong fascination with flight. From this vantage point, he can witness the city's vibrant energy and its enduring spirit of progress. The bustling airport, once a symbol of modernity, continues to inspire him. As he captures the planes soaring through the sky, he feels a sense of awe and connection to the world beyond. The view from this modern-day Tower of Babel reminds him of the interconnectedness of humanity and the boundless possibilities of the future.
